PART I: MEDALLION SIGNATURE GUARANTEE

A Medallion Signature Guarantee is required under the following circumstances:

- Sending redemption and/or distribution proceeds to any person, address or financial institution not on record
- Redemptions from an account for which the address or account registration have changed within the last 30 days
- Changes to a shareholder's record name (Completed W-9 form is also required)
- Sending redemption and/or distribution proceeds to an account with a different registration (name or ownership) from your account
- Adding or changing ACH or wire instructions, telephone redemption options or any other election in connection with your account

Medallion Signature Guarantee Instructions

A Medallion Signature Guarantee may be obtained from any eligible institution as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Examples of such institutions include banks, savings associations, credit unions, and brokerage firms; the institution must be a member of the Securities Transfer Association Medallion Signature Program (STAMP), The New York Exchange Signature Program (MSP), or the Stock Exchange Medallion Program (SEMP).

The Medallion Signature Guarantee stamp contains an alpha prefix and serial number. The alpha prefix identifies the restricted financial limit for your monetary request. You will want to make certain the institution guaranteeing the signature(s) on your form has an alpha prefix which will cover the request being made.

The stamp we receive MUST be an original; photocopies or fax copies are not accepted. The words "Medallion Signature Guarantee" must appear near each of the signatures guaranteed. The Guarantee must appear with the printed name, title and name of the guarantor institution. It must also be dated within 60 days of our receipt. PLEASE NOTE THAT A NOTARY SEAL IS NOT ACCEPTABLE.
